Improve Your Life With Your Natal Jupiter

Jupiter is the planet of abundance, expansion, and rules optimism, exploration, and new experiences. He's the happy planet, the one who wants good things to happen for you, SO find the sign and house location for Jupiter in your natal chart. The areas of life ruled by the sign and house Jupiter is in get Jupiter's expansive, beneficial energy.

Note: Jupiter's energy is expansive, so sometimes he can expand the bad and difficulties, but he ultimately does want the good, so if you start working on turning things around, he'll go along with you.

Natal Jupiter in Aries or the 1st house

You can make what you want happen in life with a positive attitude. You relish competition and don't like to wait for things to happen. You like doing things on your own, and that can be when you produce the best results. You can do well as a leader and when you're being daring and courageous.

Natal Jupiter in Taurus or the 2nd house

You love stimulating your senses and doing what you find most pleasurable. You may be a glutton at times. If you have good self-esteem and confidence, you can bring good fortune into your life. Make sure that you give as much as you get, and envision your success in order to attain it.

Natal Jupiter in Gemini or the 3rd house

You like being around people, being sociable and engaging. You're good with conversation and try to be friendly and honest. Learning is a good thing for you, and you can make good things happen for you using your mind. You can adapt to circumstances more easily, and this puts you in good situations.

Natal Jupiter in Cancer or the 4th house

You need security and comfort, and can find the most success when you have that. You have an excellent intuition when it comes to business and finances. You prefer to stick with tradition instead of going outside of the box. You feel most prosperous when you're helping other people.

Natal Jupiter in Leo or the 5th house

You're a warm soul, and gain prosperity when you're generous and giving. You can boost people's egos and carry yourself well, and when you do, you attract good fortune. Don't give in to being too proud, boastful, or egotistical. Let your creativity shine, your inner child play, and your hobbies take you places.

Natal Jupiter in Virgo or the 6th house

You need to maintain some structure and order to attract success. The details can be the key to your accomplishments if you don't let yourself get lost in them. You have many skills of value that help you along the way, are a hard-worker, and your problem-solving skills can get you out of many situations.

Natal Jupiter in Libra or the 7th house

Balance is key for you, and you can be successful when you strike a balance. You need harmony in your life, and you can be an excellent negotiator. You may need a partner in order to find success, but it must be an equal. Equality is of the utmost importance to you.

Natal Jupiter in Scorpio or the 8th house

You can throw yourself into work and with your determination and grit, make success yours. You can be good with research and mystery. When you know exactly what you want and dedicate yourself to it, you can have anything and everything. You show strength in the face of adversity and keep going.

Natal Jupiter in Sagittarius or the 9th house

You can lift people up with soaring rhetoric and inspirational speeches. Share what you've learned in life with others, and you'll receive so much in return. You have strong beliefs, and should live a life that follow those beliefs. Just don't be too self-centered. You need freedom and have an optimistic outlook.

Natal Jupiter in Capricorn or the 10th house

You need to be the one who is calling the shots. Your maturity and practicality can take you a long way, and when you're responsible and hard-working, you can succeed. You probably have big goals for yourself, striving to have great success and status in life.

Natal Jupiter in Aquarius or the 11th house

You're an innovative, original person, and when you embrace that, you can create success for yourself. Work with others and be open. You need your freedom to express your own individual beliefs and abilities. You could be a great humanitarian, wanting to help mankind, all creatures, and Mother Earth.

Natal Jupiter in Pisces or the 12th house

You're a compassionate person, and through your compassion, you can accomplish a lot. Help those who can't help themselves, and be kind to everyone. You have a strong spiritual side, and just want everyone to get along, believing very much in the mantra, make love not war. Let your imagination soar.

Improve Your Life With Your Natal Midheaven

The Midheaven is the 10th house cusp (the cusp of a house is the very beginning of that house). It's the highest part of the chart, so it's what we can strive for in our lives, what our ultimate is. Manifesting your Midheaven sign can help you realize more of your own potential. The 10th house also rules your career, so this house can show the type of career you should have.

Midheaven in Aries

You're comfortable in the spotlight, and aren't afraid to embark down a new path. You can be impulsive in your decision-making, especially in regards to your career and life path, and need to give yourself enough time to know what you're doing and where you're going. You're ambitious, driven, and hard-working once you figure out what you want to do with your life. Your career can be something Aries-related, like in the military, as an entrepreneur, in sports, or something competitive.

Midheaven in Taurus

You want to be seen as someone who has status and wealth, no matter how little you may have. You carry yourself with charm and seem sensual. You can take time to make progress in your career or with your goals, and aren't in any rush. Working in the arts could be best for you. You can also do something Taurus-related that uses your senses, or in finance.

Midheaven in Gemini

You require a lot of activity in your career, and get bored easily. Something mentally stimulating may be best for you, or where you can use your hands. With Gemini here, you can have two different careers in life, maybe even at the same time. It might burn out most people, but you need the activity. You can have a career that's Gemini-related, like writing, speaking, detail-oriented work, planning, with younger people (like teaching), or using your mind in some way.

Midheaven in Cancer

You care deeply about your career and success, and because of that, can experience some upheaval and fluctuations until you finally devote yourself to something. You want to be seen as someone who knows what they're doing and can be looked up to. You can be quite ambitious, creative, and helpful of others once you do pick a career. You can have a career that's Cancer-related, like dealing with the public, nurturing others, in or for the home, or with or for family.

Midheaven in Leo

You need to shine in your career, and want to be recognized for your work and receive praise. Working in the public eye could suit you well. You work best on your own because you're too dominating of other people. You're proud of your accomplishments, and of where you are in life. You can have a career that's Leo-related, like in the public eye (this is the most common 10th house placement for celebrities), through work that helps other people, or work that makes people laugh.

Midheaven in Virgo

You need plenty of mental stimulation in your career, or you get bored quickly. You do best in work that's in service of others, that involves the usage of your mind, and where you can exchange ideas freely. You prefer conventional jobs in conventional places. You can choose a career that's Virgo-related, involving the details, something with your mind, as an organizer, bringing structure or creating routines, with health, or with animals.

Midheaven in Libra

You likely need a career that involves someone else, and have most of your success when you're working with a partner. You need them to be an equal, and you want to divide the work fairly. You come across as charming and graceful in public. You take your time deciding what to do in your career and with your life path, weighing your options, but you can vacillate too much and never decide what you want. You can choose a career that's Libra-related, like in the arts, the law, the beauty industry, fashion, or the wedding industry.

Midheaven in Scorpio

You can become obsessed with your career, dedicating yourself to it fully and being quite ambitious. You have incredible focus and such a strong will that success is almost a guarantee as long as you don't self-sabotage with extreme emotions and destructive actions. You come across as powerful and strong in public. You can choose a career that's Scorpio-related, like in science, dealing with secrets, helping people transform themselves or transforming items/property, or in finance.

Midheaven in Sagittarius

You have an optimistic attitude with your goals, and while you're hard-working, you don't lose yourself in your work. You may not dedicate yourself to any one job either, and have several different careers in your life. You come across as jolly and optimistic, and you're a natural salesman. You may choose a career that's Sagittarius-related, like in travel, teaching, writing, speaking, expansion, or dealing with foreign cultures/people.

Midheaven in Capricorn

You take your career very seriously, and work harder than most to achieve what you set out to do. You take the slow, steady, cautious approach, and come across as determined and practical. Success likely comes later in life, after years of hard work and slow progress. You may choose a career that's Capricorn-related, like in politics, as an entrepreneur, working with people older than you or with your parents, or helping those older than you.

Midheaven in Aquarius

You do things differently in your career, and take an innovative approach. You think very long-term, and know what you want long before you even get started. You may work best in a group, or doing something in the public eye, though you're not comfortable in the public eye, and would prefer if only your work be recognized and not you. You can choose a career that's Aquarius-related, like in technology, as an inventor, in science, helping people realize their dreams, or that focuses on the future.

Midheaven in Pisces

You have difficulty figuring out what you want to do with your career and the path you want your life to go in. You need to learn to be more practical when making your decisions. You can do work that helps other people, or allows you to express your emotions publicly through something creative. You can choose a career that's Pisces-related, like dealing with spirituality, the metaphysical, the arts, or helping others.

Improve Your Life With Transit Jupiter

In your natal chart, Jupiter can show where you continually benefit from his expansive, abundant energy, but in transit, transit (moving) Jupiter can bring this energy to various areas of your life depending on which house he's touring in your natal chart, and what aspects he's making to which planets. This gives you the chance to work with Jupiter energy in every area of life as he moves along.

Jupiter spends about one year per sign, so he's in one of your natal houses for about a year at a time. Aspects to your natal planets will last 1-2 weeks, so that's a lot shorter, but when he's conjunct one of your natal planets, you can really feel the Jupiter energy. Sextiles and trines can also be beneficial, while squares and oppositions usually bring about laziness. You may find that transit Jupiter brings the most opportunity and luck for you when he's in your natal Sun or Moon sign, in your natal 1st house of the self, or in your natal 10th house of goals.

Note that Jupiter is in Libra until October 2017, and then enters Scorpio until November 2018.

Transit Jupiter in the 1st House

When transit Jupiter is in your 1st house, you feel optimistic about your life. You become more confident and feel good about the way things are going. This can lead to you making improvements in your life because you feel so good or want to feel better. You could be presented with new opportunities that will expand your life in some way. You may want to expand your life and experience more, seeing what the world has to offer you. You're more friendly and gregarious, outspoken and blunt, and have a more happy attitude. You can do what you want and be who you are, and you don't feel chained down. You do need to watch for being overly indulgent or lazy. This aspect can also lead to weight gain, though if you actually put in effort to lose weight, this aspect will make it easier. It's just getting up and actually doing it that could be difficult.

Transit Jupiter in the 2nd House

When transit Jupiter is in your 2nd house, you can experience an increase in self-esteem and self-worth. You may focus on your value system and make adjustments to them, or make adjustments to your life that are more in line with your values. You're not up for trying anything different or drastic with this transit, and stick to the traditional and to things you've tried before. Nevertheless, this aspect can be good for your finances, and you can be presented with or make opportunities for yourself that will increase your financial status. You can also purchase more items of value, and be more materialistic, which can make you spend more than you should, so while you can make a lot of money, you're just as inclined to spend a lot as well. You should have a productive year no matter what, and get a lot done that needs to be done. You may also be sensual and indulgent.

Transit Jupiter in the 3rd House

When transit Jupiter is in your 3rd house, you want to learn, and this aspect gives you the chance to learn as much as you can. You could take a class, go to school, or start learning something on your own to expand your knowledge. You're more open with people, and can express yourself honestly. You may find yourself having many more communications than in the past, and you can articulate your thoughts and ideas well. Technology could be prominent during this transit, and you could buy new equipment or a new car. You may do more with your community, with your neighbors, or with a sibling, and could have opportunities presented to you through them. You could find yourself on the road a lot, but not going very far. You should be more sociable and enjoy spending time with people, and they like being around you with your positive attitude.

Transit Jupiter in the 4th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 4th house, you could have the opportunity to expand your home in some way. Perhaps you put on an addition or knock down walls to make it feel more expansive. You want to have more freedom of movement at home, which is why you feel the need for a bigger place. You could buy a new place, or begin investing in real estate. You enjoy being at home now more than in the past, and enjoy spending time with your family, or at least try to improve your familial relations. A new member of the family could appear during this transit. You can also focus on strengthening your inner foundation, the very basic part of your that you build yourself on, and try to bring more stability into your life through that. You want to ensure that you have security that will last for a long time, and that you don't have to worry about things falling apart anytime soon. You can also be more encouraging and supportive of your loved ones during this transit.

Transit Jupiter in the 5th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 5th house, you just want to have a good time, and good times should be had. You can enjoy yourself and do the things that you love most. You can spend more time on your hobbies, and take up new ones. If you're creative, you can see your creativity soar, and this is an excellent aspect for artistic types. You can be inspired to create your best work yet. You may be prone to gambling, and some risks may go well, but don't push your luck. You want to express yourself in some way, and let the world see you. You can be more sociable and if single, meet new romantic partners. You could fall in love during this transit, but if there aren't any other grounding influences (like Saturn making some aspects), it's most likely you'll just date a lot. If attached, you could bring some romance back into the relationship. This can also be a good period to have a child/get pregnant, and if you have children, it can be a good period for them.

Transit Jupiter in the 6th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 6th house, you enjoy working and are much more productive and efficient than in the past. You know exactly what work needs to get done and in what order, and you do everything quickly and to the best of your abilities. You expect a lot from yourself, and may need to watch for perfectionist tendencies. You should get along better with coworkers, though you may want more freedom at work to do things your own way. You could move into a bigger office or workspace. This can be a good period to get a new job, or be offered several new job opportunities. You can handle your day-to-day affairs much more easily, and not find small tasks boring. This is also a great period for dealing with your health, and you can make great strides with health issues. Just make sure you're eating well and exercising, otherwise you may gain some weight.

Transit Jupiter in the 7th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 7th house, you could do well with a partner. Personally, you may commit to someone, move in with them, become engaged, or get married, and you prefer being in a relationship over being alone. Professionally, you could take on a business partner and do very well together. Some sort of important partnership is likely during this transit. You're happier in relationships of all kinds, and the people that you meet tend to be good for you. On the flipside, you could end a relationship during this transit, but it's one that hasn't been good for you and you're glad to be rid of them. You're better at making compromises, finding middle ground, and negotiating. You're also more charming and good in social situations. If you have to appear in front of people, you can make a good impression on them.

Transit Jupiter in the 8th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 8th house, you're more comfortable with the amount of power and control that you have in your life. You may want more and gain more, but you're less likely to go about getting it in the wrong way, or manipulate people once you have it. You can do some digging into yourself and your deeply-held issues, and come to terms with issues from your past. This can be a great period of healing and growth, and you learn how to be more vulnerable and open to intimacy. This can also be a good period for your wealth, and you could gain more wealth if you make good decisions with investments, or through a partnership. You could settle a debt, loan, tax issue, inheritance, or problem with joint finances. Your sexual appetite expands, and you could have more partners, or spend more time with the one you have.

Transit Jupiter in the 9th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 9th house, he's in the house that he naturally rules, so he's quite at home here, and that's good for you. This is a time where you can expand your life in some way, and have plenty of opportunities presented to you to do so. You're usually much more optimistic and light-hearted, and don't want to focus on anything too serious. Life is good, and you want to experience all of the goodness out there. You can learn something new, go back to school, get a degree, try teaching others, or get into writing. Dealings with the law go smoother. In business, you could deal with people from other places who help you, and promoting your work can be beneficial. You can see the big picture now, and because of this, you're a lot less stressed over the smaller things that come up on a daily basis. You know things will work out just fine, and there's no need to worry.

Transit Jupiter in the 10th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 10th house, you usually experience a good period for your career. You can be recognized for the work that you've done and make strides. If you're in the public eye, you make a good impression. You could travel through your work, see an increase in your status because of your success, and be presented with opportunities through your elders (parents, bosses, mentors, etc.). You can do what you want in your career with greater ease, and you should try to put yourself out there as much as you can, because the more that you do, the more that you'll get. You could finally achieve a goal that you've been working hard towards now, and it doesn't seem as difficult as it has been. You can also create new goals for yourself that are bigger and more daring than you would've previously thought possible.

Transit Jupiter in the 11th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 11th house, you usually make new friends, and lots of them. Your social calendar is more filled than it has been for some time, and your new acquaintances can come with new opportunities for you. You could join a new group, or work hard towards a new cause that you pick up. The humanitarian in you comes out, and you want to help the world in some way. You could join a charitable group. Whatever you do, you want to be around people who share the same interest that you do. When you think of the future, you have a more optimistic attitude, and you're hopeful that everything will go well. You could get an opportunity to make one of your dreams come true, or at least get closer to making one come true. You're more open to things that are original, inventive, eccentric, and unique, and are willing to embrace your individuality.

Transit Jupiter in the 12th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 12th house, you can focus on the habits that you've taken on over the years and finally let go of them. You can be less self-destructive during this transit, and eliminate some of the baggage that you've been carrying around. You're less afraid to get in touch with your hidden issues and bring them to the surface to deal with them. This can be a great time to start therapy of some sort. You may explore your spirituality and become interested in metaphysical subjects. You could take up meditation or some sort of spiritual practice. Your compassion expands and you try to help others through volunteer work or charity. You're okay with doing things in the background that may not be noticed right now, and find that you prefer being out of the spotlight because you do your best in private. When you need help, it's there, and this transit usually protects you during difficult times.

Transit Jupiter Conjunct, Sextile, or Trine Your Natal Planets

Transit Jupiter to Natal Sun

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Sun, you can experience a time of opportunities being presented to you. It's up to you whether or not you're going to take those opportunities and do something with them or let them pass you by. You're confident and it's a good time to begin something new. You feel good physically and are positive, though your judgment can be off in some cases.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Sun, you can make plans for your future easily. This can be an especially good time for you financially, so take advantage of that. Your confidence is higher than usual, and you can deal with people more easily. You feel good, and you want to make your life better. Think about the ways you can improve your life and get them started.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Moon

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Moon, expansion is the name of the game. Your moods raise and you feel optimistic about everything in life. Just be careful not to overdo it. You want to make happy changes to your home, and you may redecorate to make it reflect your upbeat mood or renovate to expand and make it larger. You can knock down walls and go for that open-concept feel, or move into a larger home.

Strengthening your inner foundation is favorable, and you may want to make your relationships with loved ones, especially family, better.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Moon, you can usually be optimistic without being delusional about it. You find life to be more pleasurable, and try to have more fun. People see you as open and sociable, making them drawn to you. You may feel a lot better about yourself, even if you don't quite realize it consciously, but it can permeate in everything you do.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Mercury

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Mercury, you can step back and see things from a wider perspective, but can miss the details as a result. You feel positive about things, but you can become too positive. You can expand your mind during this period, learn something new, go back to school, or start a writing project. You can share your thoughts and ideas with people, and they usually respond well. This is also a good period for dealing with contracts and documents, writing, and speaking.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Mercury, you can take in new knowledge and information more easily. You focus on subjects that aren't too serious, and feel good about life. You're more curious about the world, and everything you see inspires you.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Venus

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Venus, your creativity is heightened, and this is a good time to pursue creative ventures. If you're happy at work, you'll be even happier and do more work. If not, you can take some time off and enjoy yourself away from it all. Watch your spending habits. You want to indulge in your senses, feeling more sensual, and you feel good, really good. This can be a time where you start a new love relationship.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Venus, you can feel good, sociable, and generous, but you may not feel the impact of this transit too much if you don't see it coming. It just ends up being a time where you feel a little better than usual. This is a good time to begin something new, meet new people, and pursue a money-making venture.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Mars

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Mars, you should see a surge in energy and drive. You believe in yourself and your abilities which allows you to do more, but you can also attempt or promise more than you can actually accomplish. Be physically active and keep your body moving. Your confidence is higher, as well as your competitive nature.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Mars, you feel good, positive, and can get right to it. You want to be a little more bold and daring than usual, and can take some risks. You're more assertive and can stand up for yourself. If opportunities are presented to you, you can go for it, and with your increased confidence, you can do well.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Jupiter

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Jupiter, you experience a Jupiter return, which is when transit Jupiter returns to the exact placement it was at when you were born. A Jupiter return occurs every twelve years or so, and is usually a good period. You feel buoyant, and an opportunity could be presented to you. You can expand your life in some way and experience something new.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Jupiter, you feel optimistic and positive about your life, and can make good things happen for you, but you may feel too good to do anything. Try to make yourself so you can take advantage of the energy, otherwise it'll pass without much happening.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Saturn

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Saturn, your optimism is tempered, and you take a more realistic approach. You may seem pessimistic and serious about life. Try not to get too down, and work hard during this period. That hard work can turn into good things if you don't let yourself become too pessimistic.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Saturn, you can work hard and be practical but still have a positive outlook on life, and the work you put in can expand your life in positive ways. Your optimism isn't unrealistic, but you're not too serious either. There's a good balance here.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Uranus

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Uranus, you need to break free and expand your life in some way that leads you to have more independence. You should embrace your individuality, and try new things that allow you to have new experiences. You're more open to other people and other ways of living. You may experiment, but don't go too far.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Uranus, you can come up with great, new ideas quickly, and you have mental clarity. This is a good time to start learning something new and opening up your mind. You could be presented with an opportunity to make advancements in your career, personal life, or with your finances, and it comes unexpectedly.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Neptune

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Neptune, you're more generous, empathic, and helpful. Whenever you see anyone down, you'll help them up. Your creativity heightens, and you need to express yourself in a creative way. This is a great time if you're an artist of any kind. Your sense of reality isn't great, so don't make any long-term decisions now.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Neptune, you can do some volunteer work, join a charitable group, or help out a loved one with a problem. You want to give of your time and energy to help others, but you're not as unrealistic about their flaws. You see them, but you don't think they're so bad. Your imagination is active, and you're drawn to fantasy.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Pluto

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Pluto, you strongly believe in your beliefs, and you'll defend them against anyone who disagrees with you. You can expand your beliefs, and try to get other people to believe what you do as well. You may become interested in the mysteries of life and are good at researching and investigating. You want to get to the core of any matter.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Pluto, you can breathe new life into something, whether it be an aspect of your life, an object, a person, or yourself. This is a good time to undergo a transformation of some kind. You can also become interested in serious subjects, and deal positively with joint finances, taxes, debts, loans, or inheritances.

Improve Your Life With New Moons

A New Moon is when the transit Sun and transit Moon are in the exact same spot. New Moons are enthusiastic, energetic, and good energy for starting anew, so they bring excellent energy for working on yourself in a positive way. You can focus on the areas of life ruled by the house the New Moon for the month occurs in, and hit every part of your life over the course of a year. The biggest and bestest New Moons for bettering yourself will likely come with a New Moon is your Sun sign, Moon sign, or Rising sign, and you can focus on making great strides and developing yourself in any way.

You can also have a Personal New Moon, and this can be a great time for you personally for starting a new venture or journey, making it excellent for working on bettering yourself. You can be more energized and enthusiastic about your life, and you can focus on making things better. There are two Personal New Moons you should use. One occurs every month, and is when the transit Moon is in the same spot as your natal Sun. The second occurs when the transit Sun is in the same spot as your natal Moon, and occurs once per year.

Note: Solar Eclipses occurs on New Moons, but the energy is stronger.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 1st House

The First House is the house of the self, so a New Moon or solar eclipse here is a great time to make a new you. Get a haircut, manicure, or new outfit. Reinvention of the outer self is fruitful with this placement. Make yourself look your best, and it'll help you feel your best, increasing your stamina, confidence, and overall approach to life. Doing an internal overhaul is good now as well. How you come across and how you express yourself may be things you focus on changing to better reflect the inner you, especially if you're someone who tends to hide who you are with others. Your energy may be higher, which is good because you'll likely be quite busy, and you may be more eager about life, especially trying new things. You want to meet new people, have new experiences, and be more courageous and daring. Consequently, it's a good time to try something that you've been a little gun-shy about in the past. You'll be less likely to shy away and may feel that you can get anything done right now. Being in the spotlight doesn't seem so uncomfortable now, and you may put yourself out there more, or end up getting more attention for something naturally.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 2nd House

The Second House rules your disposable income, so money matters fall here. A New Moon or solar eclipse in this house could signal a new opportunity or strong desire to increase your income, or, on the flip-side, an opportunity to spend money (and not on everyday items). If you have to spend money, make sure it's on something that is truly necessary and not something that you'll regret later, and be wary of impulse buying. If it's something you really do need, then this is an excellent time to buy it, with little chance of buyer's remorse (so if you've got a big purchase you know you have to make, timing it for now could be beneficial). If you're looking to streamline and get your finances under control, this can be a good time for it. Plan a budget and stick with it! The Second House also rules your self-esteem, so you can see a positive increase in the way you feel about yourself if you choose to work on the personal growth needed to increase your sense of self-worth. You want to be more in touch with your senses, so physical stimulation may be sought now. That stimulation may be felt more intensely, and you may overindulge.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 3rd House

The Third House rules communications, so with a New Moon or solar eclipse here, you can see an increase in the amount of communications you have with people, whether it's in person, over the phone, on the computer, or by some other means. Gathering information is easier now, and you can collect and arrange it all neatly. Day-to-day activities can be finished without feeling like they're tedious and redundant. The only chance you have of feeling boredom now is if there isn't enough to do, so stay busy, which shouldn't be too hard now. Making quick decisions is favorable, and dwelling on singular issues may drive you more bonkers. Just decide and move on. Why fret? You may also want to expand your mind and learn something new. Feeding the mind is usually a good way to keep from ever being bored. This house rules siblings as well, so you could spend more time with yours having new interactions, or by restoring the relationship if it hasn't been where you want it to be. Short distance travel is a part of the Third House, so you could take a day trip, perhaps for a task, or just on a whim. Updating your close environment, most likely through your community, could come about. Volunteer locally, join neighborhood watch, or pick up litter around your block.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 4th House

The Fourth House is the house of home and family, so a New Moon or solar eclipse in the Fourth House can show you making improvements to your home (and that can be as simple as buying a new throw pillow or as advanced as knocking down a few walls). Cleaning up your home and personal space can make you feel better about everything.

Cluttered home, cluttered life, cluttered mind! You may want to spend more time with your family, bonding, renewing relationships (if you haven't been spending much time with the family), and opening up about your true feelings. Emotions may be deeper and intimacy may be more desirable, along with a stronger group of supporters to help protect you when you're feeling vulnerable. Be a better supporter of others too. Your intuition can be more developed now as well, so listen to those initial feelings you have about things. The first reaction may very well be the best one right now. It's a good period to sell your home, buy a house, move, or refinance. You want to keep busy, or you may be kept busy with a flurry of activity. Making and working towards long-term goals is a positive use of the energy.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 5th House

The Fifth House is the house of fun, so you could spend some time going wild at a party, practicing a long-loved hobby, or letting the creative juices flow if a New Moon or solar eclipse falls here. You feel less reclusive and want to get out more. Feeling lonesome isn't an option! The things that you feel make life fun are what you're most attracted to now. Creating is positive, so this is an especially good time for those who work to 'create' anything, not just the arts. This house also rules romance, so you could have a new date or feel like bringing some romance into your relationship if you're committed (bubble bath, dinner for two, etc.). If you've got your eye on someone, ask them out. If you just want to mingle, mingle. Children are a Fifth House matter, so if you have kids, you may feel inclined to spend more time with them, or they may require your attention for something. You may want to get in touch with your own inner child, feeling more playful and carefree. You can be bolder, feeling better about yourself, and you may require more approval from those around you.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 6th House

The Sixth House rules your health, so a New Moon or solar eclipse here could have you more focused on your well being, be it physical fitness or mental stability. It's a good time to try a new diet or health regimen, but make sure it's something you can realistically keep up with and not some fad you'll quit in two weeks. Be careful not to obsess about being healthy – even too much of a good thing is a bad thing! Everything in moderation. Your daily habits may undergo a change, especially in an attempt to restore order if some aspect of life has been out of balance. Keeping things disorganized and cluttered is not tolerated now. You may adopt a new pet or get something new for the one you have. Your work environment is also a 6th house issue, so this is a good time to improve your current one or look for a new one altogether. Just don't set your sights so high they're unattainable, and you end up doing something you regret. Sometimes impulsiveness can set in and you can find yourself quitting your job on a whim, and then what are you going to do? Keep in mind that any changes made should be positive and well thought out.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 7th House

The Seventh House rules all of your relationships, so a New Moon or solar eclipse here highlights your romantic relationships, business relationships, and even your enemies (but with the Seventh House, it's 'open' enemies, the ones you know about, the people who you openly admit you don't like and are out to get you; the Twelfth House rules 'hidden' enemies, the ones we don't realize are our enemies, because of denial, or because they're able to hide it so well, or because it's secretly us). Improving your existing relationships and making them into positive, life-affirming parts of your existence is a good way to use the energy. All good relationships should provide us with something for growth in some way, so ensure that all of yours are doing so. Evaluating your ideas of intimacy and of how you view individuality versus interdependency can come about, especially if you have issues with these ideas. In business, a partner may be helpful in getting what you want accomplished, and you're better with negotiating and being fair. Your emotions are higher with all your relationships, and if you're finding yourself going it alone a lot, you'll be much less comfortable with that now.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 8th House

The Eighth House rules other people's money, like debts, taxes, and joint finances. With a New Moon or solar eclipse here, you may have to deal with any of those. It's a good time to pay off debt or get money that's owed to you, as well as get a loan or line of credit (just make sure it's one you need and not for you to splurge). This house also rules transformations, so you may make some sort of transformation of yourself or life; you may not need to necessarily get rid of things, but just tweak them to make them work. Sometimes a total overhaul isn't necessary, and a small renovation is all that's needed. If you don't have to tear things down to get it to work, then don't. Your sex drive can increase, but casual sex won't cut it – you'll need an intense experience. Intensity is accompanied with this position, in all facets of life, because you approach things in a more powerful manner. You look beneath the surface to try and find what's really there, and if there's nothing to find, you can be disappointed.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 9th House

The Ninth House rules expansion of the higher self through higher education and philosophy, so a New Moon or solar eclipse here could have you wanting to expand your mind and life by exploring new cultures, ways of living, and perspectives. The status quo is no longer satisfying you, and you want to do something extraordinary. You feel more adventurous, and want to push the limits of your mind. Your spirituality may undergo a change, as you want to explore your beliefs thoroughly and represent them as much as possible. Long distance travel is a Ninth House matter, so you could have an opportunity to travel far or just have the desire to, or spend time with people from other foreign places or try exotic cuisine. The Ninth House also rules the law, so legal matters can come into play. This isn't the best time for long-term plans, so don't commit yourself to something that won't be over quickly. Also don't try to do something that requires you to pay close attention to the details; you're more interested in the broader scope right now. If you're a writer, this is an especially good time for your craft, and the Ninth House actually rules publishing.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 10th House

The Tenth House rules your career, life path, and authority figures. A New Moon or solar eclipse here could show career advancement, a change in your life path, or dealing with a superior. Present yourself as best you can at all times because you may find people are watching you more than normal, especially for your work and accomplishments. It's difficult to keep things hidden at this time, so try to keep things on the straight-and-narrow. If there's gossip going around about you, ask yourself why. It can be truer than you think during this time. It can be an auspicious period for a raise or promotion, or to start a new career path. You'll have the energy to do it, and you'll likely be quite busy with everything you have to get done. Don't get overwhelmed by how much you have to do, and delegate when needed. Sometimes the energy can be intense, and you can become stressed. When you have many important tasks at hand, stay focused on the most important and keep track as best you can. Long-term professional goals can be formulated now that are more realistic, attainable, and will help get you further in your job and life.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 11th House

The Eleventh House rules your friendships, so you may spend time with a friend when you have a New Moon or solar eclipse in your Eleventh House. You'll feel more honest with them and any new acquaintances you make, and this may endear them to you. With your close friends, you may find yourself more emotional than normal, but let it out, because they may be more responsive than you think. Be social, both personally and professionally. Broadening your network of friends and business associates can be prosperous. It's a good time to join a new organization or group, especially if it's geared towards helping humanity or the world at large. You may want to help others, but in more of an abstract way, like donating to a cause, rather than one-on-one attention. You may be interested in those far different from you, being more tolerant and open, or at least curious. Exploring your dreams can come into focus, and it can be good to re-evaluate where you want to go in the future. All your hopes and wishes could be of focus, and you may realize some, get rid of some, change some, add some, or commit further to some.

New Moon/Solar Eclipse in the 12th House

The Twelfth House is a house of service, so it's a good time to volunteer or help someone else with a New Moon or solar eclipse here. This house rules hidden things, so dealings with secrets can occur. Make sure you're watching what you say carefully, or you might let something slip accidentally. You could do more work behind-the-scenes, feeling like taking a backseat or that things need to remain quiet to get done what must get done. Just make sure you're being open and honest, and if you're dealing with someone else, they're being totally honest too. You may also want to spend some time alone working on yourself, allowing yourself time to replenish the self. Sometimes seclusion is the only way we can repair, getting away from the distractions of life and down to the nitty-gritty. It's a good time to clear your mind, for all manner of healing, and therapy. Your ability to explore your subconscious is high at this time, and it's a good idea to use it, since the next New Moon will most likely occur in your First House, which has much more activity, and you'll have less of a chance to do so.
