On September 9th, Mars retrograde begins, and lasts until November 13th..

It's entirely in Aries, the sign Mars naturally rules, so energy and drive really get targeted. We may have way too much energy at times and act in haste and without thought; and we may burn out fast and not take initiative when we need to. We have to be smarter about how and when we use our energy.

Frustration can run high, so we need to have healthy outlets for that to avoid blowing up needlessly. Keep busy, especially physically. But do be mindful of accidents and injuries!
