2020 is a big year! Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto come together in Capricorn for the bulk of the year, so we've got some crazy super high energy focused on Capricorn for 2020. We can be super ambitious and focused, disciplined and assessing the long-term. But we can also feel extra restricted, limited, confined, and overwhelmed by responsibility. In the world, there can be some realignment with governments, alliances, and political leanings. Sure to be an important year! Uranus remains in Taurus and Neptune remains in Pisces, both at positive angles to Capricorn, so we can be helped with independent and innovative approaches (Uranus), and guided by intuition (Neptune). In addition to the usual trio of Mercury retrogrades, we'll also experience Venus retrograde in Gemini (watch what you say or eat your words!), and a Mars retrograde in home sign Aries (hello aggression!). We'll experience the final eclipses in Cancer/Capricorn (to go with the Capricorn energy), and start the Gemini/Sagittarius series (pushing activity, communication, and ideas). And we'll close out the year with Jupiter and Saturn both entering Aquarius in mid-December 2020, and we move away from traditional Capricorn domination to unconventional Aquarius, and have an eye toward the future.

Aries 2020 Horoscope

Aries 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

2020 may not feel like it brings a lot of attention to love and relationships, and you may find you're giving more time and focus elsewhere for a good chunk of the year. There may be relationship challenges later in the year, mid October to early November with Mercury retrograde (appearing to move backward) in your intimacy and relationship sectors. This may be a time where you have to give more attention to someone in your life, or to a relationship, or to a relationship issue, and work on dealing with problems. This can help you grow closer, or break apart. Take commitments seriously, but try not to get stuck in problems. It can be a good time to reconnect with someone from the past.

Venus, the planet of love, will retrograde mid-May through June, and this occurs in your communication sector. This may bring out communication issues in your relationships that you need to tackle, and you may have to work on changing the way you express yourself, and spend time listening more. Talking over people won't help any challenges. Keep your mind open and absorb what they say.

Aries 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Career is likely going to be your big focus for 2020 since Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto will come together in Capricorn (and Mars mid-February through March), which occurs in your career sector. You can feel extra focused on trying to accomplish something important in 2020, and want to feel like you're making progress, succeeding, and on the right path in life. If you're not, then this can be a challenging period where you experience lots of setbacks, delays, and failures until you get on the right track and do things the right way and for the right reasons. If you're doing things right, you can experience big progress and big success or recognition of some sort, and hit some sort of high point in your life. If you've been working hard and smart and the right way for a while, this can be the time when it pays off. You may see that while Mars is in this sector, or perhaps around the July 5th Lunar Eclipse in this sector.

Uranus remains in your money sector for 2020, and this is the first full calendar year with Uranus in your money sector. You may feel like you need to change your approach to handling money or find new ways to make money, and money can come in quickly and unexpectedly, and go out just as fast. It's a good idea to have a rainy day fund! Finding new ways to bring in more money can be a good thing too, but make sure you do your homework first. If you act impulsively, that can create problems.

Aries 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde in your home and family sector mid-June to mid-July, and this might bring out some challenges for you to manage at home or with family. You may have to work on being more understanding, comforting, and supportive, but also open to getting that in return. If you don't feel supported emotionally as well, then you can find it difficult to deal with anything that comes. It may be a good time to reconnect with family you haven't seen in a while.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your home and family sector on January 10th, and this can be helpful for focusing on issues in your family and working them out, or managing issues at home and finding solutions. You can improve the emotional connections you have with your family, or the people you think of as family, and feel more distant to the people who aren't supportive. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st, and you can make more time to spend at home, improve your living situation or move, make time for family, or expand your family.

Aries 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Venus will retrograde in one of the sectors ruling your mind mid-May through June, and you may need to give your mind a lot of time to focus and come up with plans and ideas. Your mental energy just may not be there at all! You may encounter more misunderstandings with others as well, which can be frustrating, but it may be a tale of crossed wires or not listening properly. Be patient with yourself and others. It can be a good time to pull back up old ideas and old plans that you'd like another shot at, or learning something over again. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this same sector November 30th, and you can be much more expressive with that eclipse.

Mars starts the year moving into the other sector of your mind to mid-February, and you can come up with big ideas and big plans, and focus on learning something new that deepens your knowledge about something. You can share knowledge you have, and impart wisdom. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 5th, and you can finish learning something or teaching something, and can feel much more connected to being a guide. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector December 14th, and you can focus on something new to learn or teach.

Neptune remains in the sector ruling your subconscious mind all year, and Mercury retrogrades in this sector the second half of February, so you may need to dive into your subconscious and tackle some subconscious issues. It can be a good time to work on letting go of subconscious sludge, and you can have even more energy for that with Mars in this sector mid-May through June. The more you get rid of, the more energy you can find for yourself, and the less baggage you have to weigh you down.

Aries 2020 General Horoscope

The big thing for Aries in 2020 is going to be your ruler, Mars, spending almost the whole second half of the year in your sign (July and on), and retrograding in your sign September to mid-November. That's a long time for Mars to be in your sign, even when you're ruled by Mars! So you may be feeling some extra high Mars energy in 2020, and may have to deal with issues of impulsiveness, impatience, frustrations, annoyances, and easily irritated and provoked during the retrograde. If you've got anger problems, that is not likely to go away on its own! This would be the time to deal with it. You may also need to work on being more considerate and think more of others, and take more time and do homework before jumping into anything. The start of the retrograde will likely impact those of you born after April 15th most; the end of the retrograde will likely impact those of you born April 2nd - 7th most.

While the Capricorn energy gets a lot of the attention in 2020, Saturn starts to move into Aquarius April through June, and officially enters Aquarius mid-December along with Jupiter. This can shift your attention toward your hopes and dreams, your future, and what you want to ultimately create in your life. You can get a lot more serious about it, and about any changes that need to be made. This is likely a good thing coming out of the Mars retrograde, and you can be more purposeful.

Taurus 2020 Horoscope

Taurus 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Mars moves into your intimacy sector as the year kicks off til mid-February, and this can help you to focus on strengthening emotional bonds with loved ones and growing closer. You can dig deeper into the issues that keep you from becoming closer, and work on finding solutions and understanding. You can take your relationships much more seriously, and want to be as close as possible. You can feel even more serious about intimacy and emotional bonds with the June 5th Lunar Eclipse in your intimacy sector, and you can focus on the issues, the problems with intimacy, and remove blocks. You can grow even closer with some, and further apart from those you can't improve the connection with. A Solar Eclipse occurs in your intimacy sector December 14th, and this can help you end the year more open and interested in strong bonds.

Mercury will retrograde (appears to move backwards) in your relationship sector the second half of October. And this may bring out issues in your relationships or with commitment that requires more attention. You may need to work on being more fair-minded and seeing other sides to situations, and keep the peace, compromise, or meet in the middle. You may feel like reconnecting with someone from the past during this time as well.

Taurus 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Your ruler, Venus, will retrograde in your money sector mid-May through June, and this might bring out some financial difficulties that you have to address. Try to put some money away before it hits so you can be covered if anything happens. Stay on top of your spending and track every penny during the retrograde, otherwise you might find it disappearing and not know where it went. It may not be a great time for any new financial approaches, but it could be a good time for making money in a way you have before.

Mercury will retrograde briefly in your work sector to end October and begin November. It's only for about a week, but you may have to deal with some work challenge, have a hard time with focus on any projects, or feel overwhelmed by something that needs to be broken down. Try to pay attention to the details as they can be easily overlooked, and don't stress out too much about issues.

Mars enters your career sector April to mid-May, and Saturn begins April through June and comes back in December with Jupiter. This can be great energy for setting long-term goals and achieving them, working hard for what you want, being responsible and practical, and getting recognition for the things you do. You have to do things the right way and for the right reasons, but if you do, you can make great strides and hit high points.

Taurus 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in the sector ruling your immediate environment mid-June to mid-July, and you may have to deal with some issues with matters in your neighborhood, school, or at home. You can become more involved and active, and try to find some solution to any problems. If there are young people in your life, they can get more of your attention, and they may need you to be more understanding and listen to them.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, and you can feel more connected to your immediate environment if you have a good connection to it; if not, you may feel like leaving, going elsewhere, or spending more time elsewhere. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st, and you can work on new projects in your community, participate in events, and keep busy.

Taurus 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in one of the sectors ruling your mind mid-June to mid-July, and you can have difficulty with focus and paying attention. You may have to work on finding a different way of expressing yourself, and being a better listener with others. A Lunar eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, and you can be much more open and honest with what's on your mind. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st, and you can focus on a new idea and plan.

In 2020, Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto will come together in Capricorn (and Mars mid-February through March), and this occurs in one of the other sectors ruling the mind for you. This can bring energy for you to pursue learning further, to teach knowledge you have, or to expand your mind in other ways. You likely want to broaden your knowledge in some way, and it can be a good time to go back to school, teach, write, or speak.

Mars will be in the sector ruling your subconscious mind July to the end of the year because Mars retrogrades in this sector September to mid-November. This may bring attention to old issues from the past, subconscious issues and motivations, and you may need to take some time away from anything too draining and turn inward, reflecting and gaining understanding. The second half of the year is likely one where you need to let go of some major baggage, and allow yourself to finally move on.

Taurus 2020 General Horoscope

Neptune remains in Pisces all year, and this can make you want more spiritual connections with friends, and you can feel more strongly connected to your individuality and spiritual self. You may be more helpful with friends, and more guided intuitively with your dreams.

Mercury retrogrades in Pisces the second half of February, and you may question what your dreams are or have struggles with a friend or group. Don't make any rash decisions until it passes. Mars is in Pisces mid-May through June, and this can get you back on track with your dreams and with friends.

Uranus remains in your sign, and this is the first full calendar year that Uranus will be in your sign. This can make you more focused on changes, and what you want to change in your life in unconventional ways. You can be more of an individual, more inventive and original, and you can work on changing some parts of yourself or your life. Those of you born before May 2nd can feel the impact of Uranus most in 2020.

Gemini 2020 Horoscope

Gemini 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Your ruler, Mercury, will retrograde (appears to move backward) in your love sector at the end of October to start November. It'll be brief (only about a week), so you may experience a quick blip in your love relationships and dealings with loved ones. They may want more attention, act more dramatically, or you may feel less affectionate. Try to have some patience and work to get things back on track quickly afterward.

Mars enters your relationship sector as the year begins to mid-February, and you may start the year more open to commitment and wanting to take relationships more seriously. You can spend more time with loved ones, and feel more open to being with someone. If single, you may only be interested in something serious, while if in a relationship, you may focus on taking things to the next level. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your relationship sector on June 5th, and you can settle issues in relationships, grow closer with some, and walk away from others. You can be more emotional in your relationships, and ones that are healthy can thrive while ones that aren't can unravel. A Solar Eclipse occurs in your relationship sector on December 24th, and this can make you more enthusiastic and energized in your relationships, and open to meeting new people.

Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto come together in Capricorn in 2020 (and Mars mid-February through March), and this is in your intimacy sector, so you may find 2020 to be a big year for you when it comes to improving intimacy in your relationships, transforming your views and approach to intimacy, strengthening the emotional bonds you have with others, and taking connections more seriously. You may find you have less patience for anything superficial and only want intense connections with strong people. This may be strongest around the Lunar Eclipse July 5th in your intimacy sector. Just try not to get lost in the intensity!

Gemini 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde in your money sector mid-June to mid-July, and you may need to pay extra careful attention to your finances during this time. You may need to work on being more practical or responsible financially, and not being too impulsive with your finances. Try to avoid big splurges that can come back to bite you later. It can be a good time to make money in a way you have before. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your money sector January 10th, and you may have to finalize a financial arrangement or agreement, settle financial issues, and can make progress with smart financial decisions. A Solar Eclipse occurs in your money sector June 21st, and you can make new financial plans, get money in a new or unexpected way, and gather new financial information.

Mercury will retrograde in your work sector the second half of October, and this can bring out challenges in your work like, with co-workers, bosses, employees, or clients, and you may want to create some changes in your work environment. You can be more easily stressed, so you'll want to take care of yourself during this time, and break up big things into little things.

Neptune remains in your career sector all year, and Mercury will retrograde in this sector the second half of February to early March. This can bring out challenges when it comes to dealing with your goals and life path, and you may be uncertain with what to do or what they are. Your instincts can help you figure that out. Mars is in this sector mid-May through June, and you can feel much more ambitious and driven, hard-working and disciplined, and focused on what you want to achieve.

Mercury retrogrades in all 3 of your professional sectors in 2020, so you may find you want to go back to work somewhere you have before, for someone you have before, or doing something you have before.

Gemini 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in the sector ruling children to end October and start November, for about a week. If you have children, that week may be quite a challenge, and they can be more rebellious, demand more attention yet not want it, and you may need to be extra patient with them. They may be lashing out about something that doesn't have to do with you, so try to see what's going on in their lives that could be triggering them.

Gemini 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mars moves into one of the sectors ruling your mind April to mid-May, with Saturn starting April through June and coming back in December along with Jupiter. This can inspire you to work on taking some of your big ideas and doing something with them, making them real and tangible. You can focus on creating practical plans to pursue, and choose the ideas that you feel you can achieve, but are also going to open up more opportunities for you. This may be a time to go back to school, to teach something you know, to write, or to speak.

Uranus remains in the sector ruling your subconscious mind all year, and this is the first full calendar year Uranus will be here. This allows you to find new and unconventional ways of exploring your subconscious mind, letting go of baggage, or understanding the past. You can dive into your subconscious and connect more to your intuitive self, and strengthen that connection to help guide you. You may do all of this quietly, but can make some big changes when no one is paying attention.

Gemini 2020 General Horoscope

Venus will retrograde in your sign mid-May through June, and you may struggle with the people in your life during that time. You may get attention you don't want, lack attention you do want, and have to deal with a lot of people who just annoy you. But you yourself may be annoying to them too, so it's a lot of annoyance! Try to be more patient with others, and with yourself. You're likely going to be quite lazy and indulgent, stubborn and selfish, and may feel stuck in some way. Don't be rash, and think things through. Or just make time for lots of naps!

Mars will be in Aries July to the end of the year, and retrogrades in Aries September to mid-November. This may impact your friendships, groups you belong to, causes you champion, or dreams you have for your future. You may get into more fights with friends or in groups, and may need to calm your energy. You may push too much with a cause, or feel less motivation for one. You may want to make your dreams happen right away and have no patience, or you may lack energy and drive to push. Find unconventional ways of using up the extra energy. Embrace your individuality, and work on small changes.

Cancer 2020 Horoscope

Cancer 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde (appears to move backward) in your love sector the second half of October, and this can bring out issues in your love relationships and dealings with loved ones. You may have to give a lot more attention to someone, feel insecure about love in general, and lack love overall. You likely need to give yourself more attention, and take care of your own needs. It can be a good period to reconnect with someone or something you used to love.

Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto will come together in Capricorn in 2020 (and Mars mid-February through March), and this occurs in your relationship sector. That means the biggest focus for you in 2020 is likely going to be on your relationships and the people in your life. You can give them more attention, work to strengthen your commitment, become more committed, and transform how you approach relationships. Old relationship issues can be addressed, and you can figure out what it is you want and need exactly, what you're willing to give, and how to make your relationships solid and strong. This can be strongest around the Lunar Eclipse on July 5th in this sector. You may have very little interest in relationships that don't support you emotionally or add to your life in a positive, meaningful way.

Mars moves into your intimacy sector for April to mid-May, and Saturn begins to tour this sector April through June, and returns to end the year in December along with Jupiter, so the year may come to a close with you wanting to take all of that work on commitment and relationships and your dealings with others and using it to forge extremely strong bonds, deepen intimacy, and grow as close as possible to the people you love.

Cancer 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Mars is in your work sector to start the year to mid-February, and you can focus on trying to get as much work done as you can. You can pay close attention to the little things, and do more to get organized, make lists, improve your routine and schedule, and bring in structure and order. This can help you when you're lacking focus to get much done in 2020. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your work sector on June 5th, and this can make you more serious about the work you do, and you can get recognition for it or make progress in some way. If you're not passionate for what you're doing, you may want to do something else. A Solar Eclipse occurs in your work sector on December 14th, and you can focus on finding new work projects and opportunities, streamlining daily life to be more productive, and get attention for something you've done.

Mars will be in your career sector July to the end of the year, and this is because Mars will retrograde in this sector September to mid-November. You may experience setbacks and delays, challenges with your goals and ambitions, and may need to take a step back, take a breather, and figure out what's missing, what you need to do over, what you need more information about, and what needs to be let go of. If you can figure things out and take a responsible and practical approach, you can come out of the retrograde on track and ready to go. If you don't, you may feel like you're not on the right road until about mid-2021.

Cancer 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades mid-October to early November in your home and family and children sectors, so you may be extra focused on matters at home, with family, or with your children, if you have any. You may need to be more open to listening to your family, and deal with issues that come up. They may try your patience, but you likely need to work on being understanding. If you have children, they can be extra rebellious, and you may need to give them a lot more attention than usual, even if they don't want it. Be emotionally supportive of your loved ones, and try not to take drama to heart.

Cancer 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Neptune remains in one of your sectors of the mind all year, and Mercury will retrograde in this sector the second half of February. This can make you much more invested in your beliefs and need to open up your mind to differing ones, or make you much less invested and feel you need to find new ones. You may struggle with thinking big enough, or think too big and need to temper expectations. Mars moves into this sector mid-May through June, and this can be much better for you to expand and explore, to learn new things, to share your knowledge and teach, to write or speak, and put your ideas out into the world. You can go to school, or find other ways of learning through life experience. Your imagination can be active, and you can enjoy using it.

Venus will retrograde in the sector ruling your subconscious mind mid-May through June though, and this can bring out old issues that need to be addressed that you've buried in your subconscious. You may become aware of something that's been hidden, or expose a secret of some kind. Issues pertaining to relationships can especially get attention, and you may need to work on letting go of some of them, or letting go of someone from your life. Letting go can help to free you up.

Cancer 2020 General Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde in your sign mid-June to mid-July, so you may have some difficulties with expression and communication in general. You may lack mental focus, have misunderstandings, and can be too busy and need a break, or not busy enough and need more to do. Try to take it easy on yourself and others, and make breaks where you can but still keep yourself busy. This may be a good time for a second chance with something important.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your sign on January 10th, and a Solar Eclipse occurs in your sign on June 21st, and these are the last in your sign for some time. With the Lunar Eclipse, you can finish something important, are more open with your feelings, and can put your needs first. You can see the culmination of something, and reap the rewards, or experience setbacks and make changes. With the Solar Eclipse, you can focus on starting something new, and going down a new road. Since the Solar Eclipse occurs with the Mercury retrograde, it may be excellent for the second chance at something that can last for a while.

Leo 2020 Horoscope

Leo 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Mars enters your love sector to start the year to mid-February, and you may go into 2020 wanting to give more time and attention to the people you love and things you love to do. You can make the time to enjoy yourself in love, and if single, you may want to date around and not commit too quickly. If in a relationship, you may want to bring the spark back. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your love sector June 5th, and this can help you take love more seriously, and crave a strong soul connection to the people you love. A Solar Eclipse occurs in your love sector December 14th, and you can open your heart to others.

Mars moves into your relationship sector April to mid-May, and Saturn starts to April to June and comes back in December along with Jupiter. This can help you start to take love and commitment more seriously, and you may want to commit yourself to someone or something. You can work on having relationships based on respect, and keep the peace as much as you can. Some people may leave your life, but they're likely ones that aren't good for you anyway. Mercury will retrograde (appears to move backwards) in your relationship and intimacy sectors the second half of February to early March, and this may be a time when you have to deal with relationship issues, difficult people in your life, and may struggle with someone. It can be good for reconnecting though.

Neptune remains in your intimacy sector all year, and Mars joins mid-May through June, so you can focus more on improving intimacy during this time, and strengthening the emotional bonds you have with others. You may want to understand your loved ones and relationships better, and address deeply-held issues.

Leo 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

2020 may feel like a big work year for you as Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto come together in Capricorn (and Mars as well mid-February through March), and this occurs in your work sector. You can spend a lot more time focusing on the work you love, that you want to be doing each and every day. If you're not doing that now, then you may decide to try and make that happen. If you are doing that now, then you can make progress and become even more committed. You can really dive into whatever you do, and transform your daily life because of it. Just make sure to watch your stress levels as this can become elevated if you take on too much. This can be especially true around the Lunar Eclipse July 5th in your work sector.

Uranus remains in your career sector all year, and this is the first full calendar year Uranus is in your career sector. You may be eyeballing a change professionally, and want to do things differently. You can be open to taking a new approach with your goals and ambitions, with setting new and unusual goals, and with getting attention out of the blue for the things you do. Try to avoid being impulsive with your decisions though, as you can experience erratic energy that's hard to control once you do.

Leo 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in your home and family sector the second half of October, so you may need to spend more time dealing with matters at home, or give more attention to your family. You may have family issues come up, and you have to work to find a solution that everyone can agree to. You may have little things come up with home, even like a pipe bursting. Make sure you're getting the emotional support that you need so you can handle all of it.

Mars moves into the sector ruling your children to start the year to mid-February, and if you have children, they may require more attention from you during this time. You can help them with anything that they need, and may push them to pursue opportunities. Just don't push too hard! A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 5th, and they may be extra emotional with you, and you have to keep an open mind with them. They can rebel, but you need to keep your cool. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector December 14th, and your children can get attention or recognition or an opportunity, and you can be extra supportive.

Leo 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mercury will briefly retrograde in one of the sectors ruling your mind to end October and start November, for about a week. During that time, you may have difficulties with communications, and need to listen more and be patient with others and yourself. You may want to focus on an old idea again, or tweak your plans.

Mars will spend July to the end of the year in the other sector ruling your mind, since Mars will retrograde in this sector September to mid-November. This might make you want to find more space, feeling like you're suffocating a little bit, but it's likely in your head. You may want to push for major expansion but you push too much, or you may want to close the walls up and restrict too much. Try to find some place in the middle. Working on issues that have prevented you from broadening your knowledge, sharing your knowledge, or expressing yourself fully can be the best way to use the energy.

Mercury retrogrades in the sector ruling your subconscious mind mid-June to mid-July, and this can be a time when you have to address subconscious issues and baggage from the past. You can spend time reflecting and trying to let go of what is no longer serving you in a positive way. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, and you can focus on letting go around then as well. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st, and you can feel more refreshed and better connected to your subconscious.

Leo 2020 General Horoscope

Venus will retrograde in Gemini mid-May through June, and this can bring difficulties in your dealings with friends or in groups. You may be more stubborn in your dealings with them or they may be with you. It can be good to reconnect with old friends or old groups, but you need to be more patient with existing ones. You may also question your dreams for your future, and can be lazy with changes. You may have to push yourself to get moving with change, but it's likely going to move slowly. You may not do much with your dreams either, so this can be a period where you slow down.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in Gemini on November 30th, and you may focus on the friends that you feel a strong and healthy connection to and grow closer with them, and walk away from those you don't. You may gain more influence in a group you're passionate about, or leave one you're not. You may finalize changes you're working on, or plans for changes that you'll start in 2021. You can also sort through your dreams for the future and figure out which you can get started with now, and which you can wait on, so you can plan accordingly.

Virgo 2020 Horoscope

Virgo 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

This may prove to be quite the year for you for love and relationships - for good and bad! First, Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto will come together in Capricorn in 2020 (and Mars mid-February through March), and this occurs in your love sector. This can mean that you're going to have some super strong energy for your loved ones and love relationships, and that things may change in some of your relationships. You can grow closer and become more loving with someone, and have challenges and break apart from others. If single, you may have less interest in dating around and want to find something serious quickly, while if in a relationship, you may want to transform how you're affectionate and express love for one another. Love issues can be worked on, and you can try to open up your heart in positive ways. All of this can be strong around the July 5th Lunar Eclipse as well.

Neptune remains in your relationship sector, and Mercury retrogrades (appears to move backwards) in this sector the second half of February, so you may need to deal with some issues in your relationships or with someone in your life. It may be difficult for you to put your finger on what exactly is wrong or how to deal with it, but your instincts can guide you. Mars enters this sector mid-May through June, and this can give you the chance to make things right and get back on track in your relationships, and feel more committed.

Mars is going to be in your intimacy sector July through the rest of the year, and this is because Mars will retrograde in this sector September to mid-November. This might make it super important for you to work on intimacy issues, and to dig deep inside of yourself to try and deal with things maybe you haven't wanted to. This can help you grow closer with the people that are good for you, and help you figure out who is and who isn't.

Virgo 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde in your money sector at the end of October to start November, so only for about a week. During this brief period, you may experience some financial issues that need to be worked on quickly, and should pay close attention to your spending and financial plans. It's not long, so hopefully doesn't throw you off completely.

Mars is in your work sector April to mid-May, and Saturn starts April through June and comes back in December along with Jupiter. This can get you super focused on your work life, and you may want to make sure the work you're doing on a daily basis is work you're passionate about. If you're not, you may want to make changes. You can make progress if you've been doing things the right way, and get recognition for what you do. But you may also feel like you're taking a lot on, and need to be careful you don't put too much on your plate.

Venus will retrograde in your career sector mid-May through June, and you may lack discipline and focus for your goals and ambitions during this time. You may still feel ambitious, but lack the energy and drive to actually get anything moving. You may feel you experience a setback or delay, or you get pushed back from a high place. Bosses and authority figures can become difficult to deal with, and you may get attention you don't want or for the wrong reasons, or lack attention you do want. Try to not let yourself veer too much off of the track, and make lots of time for breaks so you don't fall too far behind.

Virgo 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mars moves into your home and family sector to start the year to mid-February, and you can start 2020 wanting to make improvements at home, and feeling more driven to improve your living situation, move, buy property, or work on home projects. If you feel good at home, this can help you feel good emotionally. You can also give more attention to your family (or the people you think of as family), and try to be more supportive of them or improve your relationships. It may be a time to plan for a family gathering or event.

With Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto coming together in Capricorn, this occurs in the sector ruling your children. If you have children, you may find your relationship with them undergoes some big changes and shifts, and you can transform how you connect with them. They may make bigger strides on their own, which can be a little scary for the parent, but good for the kid. They can get attention, make progress in some way, and shine. If they have challenges, you can take them on more fully, and go above and beyond to help. You may find in 2020 that your relationship with your children grows stronger and healthier, or falls apart (if it's not a good one). If you don't have children, you may give a lot more thought to the idea.

Virgo 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in one of the sectors ruling your mind the second half of October, and you can work to find different ways of expressing yourself if you feel misunderstood or encounter a lot of arguments. You can feel frustrated, but you may also need to do more listening to others. You can focus on your ideas and plans, and work to tweak them, make adjustments, or get focused on old ones again that you'd like to another chance with.

Uranus remains in the other sector ruling your mind all year, and this is the first full calendar year for Uranus in this sector. You can open up your mind in lots of new ways thanks to Uranus, and become interested in many new subjects that you can dive into and learn everything about. You can find new ways to share knowledge you have, and teach others about what you know. You can find new ways to express yourself, and you may find it easier to write or speak.

Virgo 2020 General Horoscope

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in Cancer on January 10th, and you can feel closer with the friends you have a good, healthy connection with, and drift further apart from those you don't. You may take on a bigger role in a group, or leave one. You can feel better emotionally when you have lots of independence, and may be rebellious if you don't feel you've been able to express your individuality fully.

Mercury will retrograde mid-June to mid-July in Cancer, and this can bring insecurity with your dreams for the future. You may struggle with feeling that you're on the right path, and question if you can do it or feel a little hopeless. Don't give in to it! You may also struggle with friends and get into misunderstandings or fights, and struggle with groups and may want to avoid them. You may want to work on change that you can't right now, or experience changes that you need to adjust to. You may rebel if you feel someone or something is trying to box you in. A Solar Eclipse occurs in Cancer June 21st during this retrograde, so it can be good for second chances with a friend or group, working on an old dream or old change, or being more independent.

Libra 2020 Horoscope

Libra 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Mars will be in your relationship sector July to the end of the year, and is spending so long in this sector because Mars will retrograde (appears to move backwards) September to mid-November. This can bring challenges for you in your relationships, and you may experience more frustrations with the people in your life, and get into more arguments. You may need to work on keeping a cooler head and not letting anger get the better of you. Try to use that energy in a productive way.

Uranus remains in your intimacy sector all year, and this is the first calendar year Uranus is in this sector. You may explore new ways of forming strong emotional bonds with the people you care about, and can feel more open to having intimate relationships with unusual people or in unusual ways. May be a good time to spice up your sex life!

Mars is in your love sector April to mid-May, and Saturn starts to enter your love sector April through June, and officially enters mid-December along with Jupiter. Mars may bring more emphasis on love in your life, and you can start working on forging stronger love connections. If you don't feel a serious connection with someone, you may struggle with maintaining the relationship. This can become much more important to you as the year closes going into 2021.

Libra 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Neptune remains in your work sector all year, and Mercury retrogrades in this sector the second half of February. You may have work issues that need to be addressed, and may want more space in your work. You may need more patience with bosses, employees, or co-workers, and likely need to check all of your work over and over again. It can be good energy for editing, revising, and redoing projects. If you don't love the work you do, you may want to do something else. Mars is in your work sector mid-May through June, and you may feel extra focused on the work you want to be doing, and can get a lot more done and be super productive.

Mercury retrogrades in your career sector mid-June through mid-July, and you can experience a setback or delay with a goal, get attention for something you don't want or lack attention for something you do want, and can struggle with bosses and mentors. You may need to take a step back and re-evaluate your long-term plans. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st during the retrograde, so it can be a great time to pick back up an old goal or reconnect with an old boss or mentor, or get praise for something you've done in the past. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, so early in the year you can make progress and see if you're on the right path, or start over again.

Mercury retrogrades in your money sector the second half of October, and you may need to be more careful with your finances and financial planning. It may not be the best time for big purchases unless you're replacing something. You may try to make money in a way you have before to improve finances.

With all 3 Mercury retrogrades impacting your professional sectors, you may focus on doing work you've done before again, or going back to work for or with someone from the past.

Libra 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

With Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto coming together in Capricorn in 2020, this puts them in your home and family sector, so 2020 may be a big year for you for developments at home or with family. You may decide to make a big move, start a big renovation, have new people move in with you, have people move out, redecorate your home, or take a completely different approach to what your home should be.

You may experience major developments with family, see an expansion of your family, and can spend more time with your family or the people you view as family. You may focus more on what family means to you, and the kind of family you want to have for yourself. There can be a total transformation in the way you handle home and family matters and the way you view home and family life. The change may start internally, and you can work on tackling issues deep inside of you at your core.

Strengthening yourself internally can help you to feel stronger and more supported, and you can be more supportive of others as a result. You may work on strengthening the foundation of your life as well, and this can lead to a culmination or success with something in roughly 6 years, and again is roughly 14-15 years.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your home and family sector July 5th, and you may be extra focused on matters at home and with family, and can be the one to sort through it all and figure out the right steps to take.

Libra 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mars will enter one of the sectors that rules your mind to start 2020 until mid-February, and this can increase your mental energy in a big way. You can come up with plenty of new ideas and work on short-term plans, and take action with them. You can be excited by what you come up with and more open about your plans. You may want to spend time learning something new as well, or sharing information you have with others. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 5th, and you can finish learning something new, finalize plans for ideas, and sort through your ideas. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector December 14th, and you can come up with more ideas, pursue opportunities to make your ideas tangible, and enjoy using your mental energy.

Venus will retrograde in the other sector ruling your mind mid-May through June, and you may struggle with advancing your learning around this time. If in college or university, you may have little patience for your schooling, and want to take a break and get some space (that may not be possible so just try to find breaks where you can). You may focus on re-learning something, or teaching something again. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector November 30th, and you may finalize plans for big ideas, make progress with a big idea, or feel more connected to your beliefs or find new ones.

Libra 2020 General Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde briefly in your sign October 27th to November 3rd, and this may be a time when you struggle with old issues, and lots of little things come up that can throw you off. You may feel like the Universe has it out for you, but it can pass quickly, and you can get back to your usual self. It can be a good time to do something over again and take a second chance with something that has been on your mind.

Venus, your ruler, retrogrades May 13th to June 25th, and you may feel off in a subtle way throughout that retrograde. Try to give yourself more time to do things, and go easy on yourself. You're only human!

Scorpio 2020 Horoscope

Scorpio 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Neptune remains in your love sector all year, and Mercury retrogrades (appears to move backwards) in this sector the second half of February. You may struggle with connecting with loved ones, and feel a lack of love in your life during this time, and have to deal with some dramatic people. Have patience, and perhaps reconnect with your heart or old flames. Mars is in this sector mid-May through June, and this can help you to be more loving and affectionate, and stay focused on love. You may want more time with loved ones, and want to enjoy yourself. If single, you may enjoy having options, but ultimately want a soul connection. If in a relationship, you can work on improving your spiritual connection.

Uranus remains in your relationship sector all year, and this is the first calendar year Uranus is in this sector. You may explore connecting with new people, changing your approach to commitment and relationships, and feel more open to unconventional people and unconventional relationships. However you feel about relationships and commitment may flip over the coming years. And existing relationships can experience many changes, some for the better and some not. Be flexible!

Venus will retrograde in your intimacy sector mid-May through June, and this may be a time when you feel you're not as close with others, and need to work on improving the intimacy in your life. You may want strong emotional bonds, but need to not be too intense or suffocate your loved ones to get that. Try to channel passion in a positive way. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector November 30th, and you can figure out what needs to be worked on, who stays, and who may fade away.

Scorpio 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Mars is in your money sector to start the year through mid-February, and this can help you focus on getting your finances in order for the year. You can make financial plans and decisions, important purchases, or get financial advice. You may work on making more money and improving your financial situation, and you can take on a second job, side gig, or turn a hobby into something profitable. Just make sure you don't splurge too much on anything you don't really need and blow it all!

Mars will be in your work sector July through the end of the year, and is in this sector for so long because Mars will retrograde in this sector September to mid-November. You may have to deal with some work issues, and can feel extra frustrated by the work you do. If you don't like your work, you may hate it even more, and want to do something else. Co-workers, bosses, employees, and partners may be a challenge for you. Try to give yourself some space to do things on your own, and make sure you don't stress out too much or you may stress yourself into sickness. It can be a good time to do work that you did in the past, or reconnect with old places you work at.

Scorpio 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in your home and family sector very briefly, for less than a week to start March, and you may need to work on a brief hiccup at home or with family, and give yourself more emotional support to handle it. Mars will be in your home and family sector April through mid-May, and this can bring extra energy and drive to focus on matters at home and with family. You can move, redecorate or renovate, expand your family, or spend more time with them. You can be more supportive of the people you view as family as well.

Saturn starts to move into your home and family sector April through June, and officially enters in mid-December along with Jupiter. This can close out 2020 with you focused on trying to tend to issues that need to be worked on at home to make your home a refuge for you, and to work on issues with family that have caused a rift or keep you from feeling fully invested in your family. You can get a lot more serious about what home and family means to you, and can work on trying to have a solid home foundation, as well as a solid internal foundation for yourself. You may take on more responsibilities at home or with family, and may see some relationships fade that aren't good for you.

Scorpio 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Pluto, Saturn, and Jupiter come together in Capricorn in 2020 (and Mars mid-February through March), and this brings major energy to Capricorn areas, which is one of the sectors ruling your mind. You can be a super idea person in 2020, and come up with big, powerful, even life-changing ideas and plans. You can focus on the ones that are realistic and attainable and make them happen. Anything you become interested in, you can be super serious about and focus on until you've learned everything. Others can take your ideas and plans seriously, and listen to what you have to say and to what you think. You can pursue new learning, and share what's on your mind. You can take control over your mind, and get better focused.

Mercury retrogrades in the other sector ruling your mind mid-June through mid-July, and you may struggle with the big picture, big ideas, and think a little too big or not big enough. You may want more space so your mind can wander, and avoid anything too serious. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st during the retrograde, and this can be good energy for picking back up an old idea, an old big plan, or an old opportunity. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, and you may start the year sorting through big ideas and getting serious about just a few.

Mercury will retrograde briefly in the sector ruling your subconscious mind for about a week to end October and start November. You may need to take a break and get some rest, and dive into your subconscious to understanding yourself, your motivations, and your past better.

Scorpio 2020 General Horoscope

Mercury retrogrades in your sign October 13th to 27th, and this can throw you off a little (or a lot!). You may need to give yourself lots of time to get things done, have extra patience for yourself and with others, and maybe avoid anything too big during this time. It can be a good period for any kind of redo, and second chances can be favorable. Think about something from the past that you'd like to try again, or that you didn't get to try but almost did and wanted to, and see if you can make it work now.

Mars actually ends 2019 in your sign and moves out of your sign January 3rd, so as the year kicks off, you may feel like this is a good year to focus on you, your plans and ideas, and like you're set up for the next 2 years or so of your life.

Sagittarius 2020 Horoscope

Sagittarius 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Mars is in your love sector July to the end of the year, and is in this sector for so long because Mars will retrograde (appears to move backward) in this sector September to mid-November. This can bring out some challenges in your love relationships, and you may get into more spats with your loved ones. You likely need to be more patient and considerate with them, and avoid drama. Don't get sucked into needless fighting. Work on bringing fun into your love relationships.

Venus will retrograde in your relationship sector mid-May through June, and this can make you feel less connected with the people in your life. You may have less patience, have to deal with stubborn people, and feel stuck in a relationship. You may not be able to move forward very much during the retrograde, and need to work on slowing things down. It can be a good time to reconnect with people from the past, or recommit yourself to someone.

Mercury will retrograde in your intimacy sector mid-June through mid-July, and this can bring out some difficulties with intimacy and emotional bonds. You may question the bonds you have and want to be much closer, but this can make you a little too intense and clingy. Try to find other things to focus your passionate energy on that are more productive. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st during the retrograde, so it can be good for reconnecting with old lovers or using passion positively. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, and you may want to be as close as possible, and let go of those you don't have that with.

Sagittarius 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

2020 is likely going to be a big year for you financially because Pluto, Saturn, and Jupiter (and Mars mid-February through March) will come together in Capricorn, which is your money sector. This can be a good thing, or a bad thing, but likely a big thing no matter what! You can totally transform the way you approach your finances, the way you handle money, the way you make purchases, and the way you make money. You might decide to completely change what you do so you can make money in a new way for some time. You can take money a lot more seriously, and focus on trying to have a healthy relationship with money. If you rely on it too much, it may be taken away from you; if you don't rely on it enough, you may be thrust into situations where you have to. A good relationship with money is key.

Uranus remains in your work sector all year, and this is the first full calendar year where Uranus is in this sector. This adds to the potential for change in your work life, and you may feel that you have to have more independence in the work you do, make changes in your work, and embrace the unconventional. You may be attracted to doing work that is totally different from anything you've done before. This can be a breath of fresh air, but you should be careful about making hasty, impulsive decisions that don't serve you well. Do your homework first.

Sagittarius 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Neptune remains in your home and family sector all year, helping you to be more compassionate and understanding with your family. You may want your home life to be quiet and serene, and can prefer to spend more time by water for the soothing comfort it can bring you. Mercury will retrograde in your home and family sector the second half of February, and you may struggle with an issue at home that needs to be addressed. You may feel like little things are going wrong at home, and have to deal with fights and misunderstandings with family. Try to be patient, and make sure you're giving yourself the emotional comfort and support you need so you don't feel overwhelmed.

Mars enters your home and family sector mid-May through June, and this can help you focus on home and family matters in a more positive light. You can make more time for family or the people you think of as family, and try to strengthen your connections with them and grow closer emotionally. You may spend more time at home, or work to make your home a place for you to escape from the world for a little while.

You can strengthen yourself internally as well, and address issues at your core.

Sagittarius 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde briefly in one of the sectors ruling your mind for about a week to start March, and you can struggle with focus and with doing anything with your ideas and plans. You may want to give your mind a break so you don't feel mentally overwhelmed by anything. Mars will be in this sector April to mid-May, and your mental energy can surge. You can come up with new ideas, new plans, and take action with them. You can be excited and enthusiastic, and want to keep busy to use up your mental energy.

Saturn begins to enter this sector April through June and officially enters mid-December along with Jupiter. You may end 2020 taking your ideas more seriously and pursuing any opportunities you have to make them reality. You can start to make big changes in your life and expand your life and explore opportunities through your ideas.

Mercury will retrograde in the sector ruling your subconscious mind the second half of October, and this may be a time when you want to give your conscious mind a break and get extra rest, take time off from anything too taxing, and become more introspective. You can get in tune with your subconscious mind, and understand yourself better. This can help you move on from old issues, or let go of old baggage.

Sagittarius 2020 General Horoscope

Mars moves into your sign early in 2020, January 3rd to February 16th, and this can give you a great big surge in energy and drive as the year starts. You can get excited by what's possible for you, the opportunities you have, and are ready to hit the ground running. You can focus on starting something new that is a focus for the next 2 years of your life, and you can be enthusiastic and positive about it.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your sign June 5th, and you can finalize something important, see the culmination of something you've worked long and hard on, and can be more in tune with your emotions and open with what you're thinking and feeling. A Solar Eclipse occurs in your sign December 14th, and you can end the year excited about new opportunities, wanting to push for a new beginning, and ready to take advantage of what's in front of you.

Capricorn 2020 Horoscope

Capricorn 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Uranus remains in your love sector all year, and this is the first calendar year where Uranus will be in your love sector the entire year. This can help you find new ways of expressing love and affection, and you can love new people and new things. If single, you may be attracted to people who are unconventional and original, or opt for relationships that are unconventional or different from any you've had before. If in a relationship, you may want to bring back the sparks and do new things with your partner.

Mercury will retrograde (appears to move backward) in your relationship sector mid-June to mid-July, and you may need to work on communication in your relationships and with the people in your life. You may need to do more listening, and do a better job understanding others. If you don't feel understood, you may need to try expressing yourself in a different way. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st during the retrograde, so it can be a great time for reconnecting with someone or recommitting. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your relationship sector January 10th, and you can grow closer with those you have a good relationship with, and further apart from those you don't.

Capricorn 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Venus will retrograde in your work sector mid-May through June, and you may struggle with the work you do, lacking love for it, dealing with stubborn and frustrating people, or feeling stuck in some way. You may not put as much effort into what you do, which can create more issues, so don't do it halfway. Try to give yourself plenty of time to get things done, and take breaks as needed. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector November 30th, and you may become more invested in the work you love to do, and pull away from the work you're not invested in.

Mars is in your money sector April to mid-May, and Saturn starts to enter this sector April through June before officially entering in mid-December along with Jupiter. This can start to bring more of your attention to your finances, and you may work on making more money, improving your financial situation, and making long-term financial plans. You can be more cautious with spending, and want to make sure you're prepared for anything. You might work on making money in new ways, and educating yourself about your finances.

Capricorn 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Mars will be in your home and family sector July to the end of the year, and is in this sector for so long because Mars will retrograde here September to mid-November. You may struggle with issues at home or with family during that time, and have extra fights and spats with family or the people you view as family, especially if your relationship isn't the best. This may be pointing out the things that need to be worked on by both of you to improve the relationship, otherwise it may not be worth keeping. You may feel like you're going a little stir crazy at home, and want more space and freedom to be by yourself, but this can cause issues with anyone you live with. Watch for getting too worked up at home, because you could have an accident at home, and cause even more stress! You likely need a solid emotional outlet and good emotional support so you can get through the retrograde alright.

Once the retrograde is over, Mars will still be in your home and family sector to the end of the year, and you can work to get back on track with whatever gets thrown off, and try to improve your family connections and make your home feel more like home.

Capricorn 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Neptune is in one of the sectors ruling your mind all year, and you can be more charismatic in your communications, and understand what people mean regardless of what they say. You can sense what other people are thinking, and sense what the right thing is to say. This may not be the case while Mercury is retrograde in this sector the second half of February though, and you may struggle with focus and paying attention. You may feel misunderstood and may need to find other ways of expressing yourself. Mars will be in this sector mid-May through June, and you can regain your focus, come up with plenty of ideas, and have the energy you need to make them take off.

Mars will be in the sector that rules your subconscious mind to start the year to mid-February, so you may go into 2020 wanting to take time to get in touch with your subconscious. You can be more introspective, reflecting on the past and issues, and this can give you the opportunity to let go and move on with less baggage. You can focus on your motivations and desires and issues, and strengthen your intuition.

Capricorn 2020 General Horoscope

Capricorn, 2020 is your year - though that can be a good thing or a bad thing! Pluto has already been in your sign for some years, and Saturn joined Pluto in 2018. Jupiter now joins with the two of them for 2020, and at various points, other planets will as well (Mars will February 16th to March 30th), and you'll have a Lunar Eclipse in your sign July 5th. So, this is some big, major energy in your sign! This can show you have some major shifting, transformations, responsibilities, and opportunities coming, perhaps all at once and wrapped up in the same stuff. You can make major changes in your life, and this can almost be a turning point in some ways. Which path will you take? It's up to you.

Those of you born January 11th - 17th will get the biggest impact since you'll get hit by Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto in 2020, so it's likely time for completely transforming your life; those of you born after January 17th get hit by Jupiter and Saturn, and you may focus more on pursuing opportunities responsibly and finding ways to have more space within limitations.

Aquarius 2020 Horoscope

Aquarius 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

Venus will retrograde (appears to move backward) in your love sector mid-May through June, and this may be a period where you don't have as much love in your life as you want, or you struggle with expressing love and affection. Loved ones may get on your nerves more than usual, and you may have to work on being more patient. Some in your life may demand more attention and be more dramatic, and you can listen but shouldn't give in too much. Conversely, you may be the dramatic and demanding one, in which case, you may need to work on an underlying issue. It can be a good time to reconnect with an old love.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your love sector November 30th, and you can work to grow closer with your loved ones, share the love you feel, and focus on the positives. You want a spiritual connection with the people you love. If you don't have that, you may drift away from them. If single, you can take love way more seriously, and don't want to settle. If in a relationship, you can work to strengthen your bonds and be more affectionate.

Aquarius 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Neptune remains in your money sector all year, and Mercury will retrograde in this sector the second half of February. You may need to focus on financial matters that come up, and pay closer attention to your finances. You can have an unexpected expense, or reconsider something you need to spend on. It's not usually the best time for big purchases, unless you're replacing something. It can be a good time to make money in a way you have before through a second job or side gig. Mars will be in your money sector mid-May through June, and you may be extra focused on money and want to improve your financial situation as much as you can.

Mercury will retrograde in your work sector mid-June through mid-July, which can bring out issues with your work or work life. You may have issues with co-workers, bosses, employees, or partners, and may want more time to do things yourself. You need to pay close attention to the details, as they're easier to miss. You may have little patience for work and want to avoid it, or have too much to do and feel overwhelmed. Give yourself time to get projects done, break big ones down into small ones, and have a positive outlet for stress. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector June 21st during the retrograde, so it can be a great time to pick back up old work, redo projects, or get attention for work you've previously done. A Lunar Eclipse occurs in this sector January 10th, and you may focus on the work you're most passionate about and let the rest fall by the wayside.

Mercury retrogrades in your career sector the second half of October, and you may reconsider one of your goals, experience a setback or delay with a goal, and feel that your path is a little shaky. Try to stay the course until the retrograde is over unless things get really wonky. It may be a good time to pick back up an old goal or reconnect with an old boss or mentor. And give yourself some space from responsibilities too.

All 3 Mercury retrogrades will impact your professional sectors, so 2020 may be a year where you reconsider your professional path, or focus on doing work that you've done or wanted to do in the past.

Aquarius 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Uranus remains in your home and family sector all year, and 2020 is the first calendar year where Uranus is in this sector. Since you're still at the start of this transit, you may be experiencing a lot of changes at home or with family. You can make lots of changes at home by moving, redecorating, renovating, or changing who you live with, and anyone you live with can bring on some changes into your life as well. You can experience changes in your relationships with family and the people you view as family, and this can be positive if your connections are solid, strong, and healthy, or it can cause more drama if they aren't. You yourself may want more space to feel better emotionally and sort through internal issues in your own way. Just try not to push them away too much.

Aquarius 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Mars will be in one of the sectors ruling your mind July to the end of the year, and is in this sector for so long because Mars will retrograde September to mid-November. This may be a time when you lack the focus you need, and your mental energy can sway from too high to too low. You may get into more arguments with others and are easily irritated and provoked. You can fight back against anyone who doesn't agree with your ideas, opinions, and plans. Try to keep more of an open mind, and have an outlet for frustrations that is healthy and positive. You can get your mind back on track after the retrograde ends.

Pluto, Saturn, and Jupiter come together in Capricorn in 2020 (and Mars mid-February through March), and this occurs in the sector ruling your subconscious. This is big energy, and in your case, it may seem quieter for you than for others. You may work on things behind the scenes, on your own, when no one is paying attention, and subconsciously. You can forge a strong connection to your subconscious, and work to unlock lots of mysteries within. You can gain new insights that allow you to take more control over yourself and your life, and you can shed lots of baggage and let go of major things that have been holding you back. It's an excellent time for any kind of therapy and being introspective. This can set you up for 2021 to go into it ready to take a stand.

Aquarius 2020 General Horoscope

Mercury will retrograde in your sign February 16th to March 4th, and you may feel like lots of little things pop up that require your attention. You can be super busy and may want a break, but that likely comes afterward. You may feel overwhelmed at times, so have an outlet and take some breaks when you can. It's usually great energy for second chances, if you can make that happen. Mars will then move into your sign March 30th to May 13th, and energy can surge. You can feel excited and enthusiastic about new opportunities for new beginnings, and work to make things happen. What you start during this time can be a focus for you for the next 2 years or so of your life.

At that time, Saturn will start to move into your sign March 21st to July 1st, and officially enters your sign December 17th. Jupiter will also move into your sign around the same time, December 19th. So with Saturn and Jupiter moving into your sign, you can embark on a big new beginning in your life, but it has to be done responsibly and the right way for the right reasons. You can unlock lots of opportunities for yourself if you do it that way, and can find plenty of space to explore and expand. But if you don't do it the right way for the right reasons, you may feel extra restricted and limited, confined and overwhelmed. Do it right, and make sure your heart is in it. Those of you born before January 24th can feel the impact of this strongest in 2020.

Pisces 2020 Horoscope

Pisces 2020 Love and Relationships Horoscope

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your love sector January 10th, and you can feel more connected to the loved ones you have a spiritual connection with, and may have less interest in the ones you don't. You can grow closer and improve emotional ties with the people you love, and try to have more fun with them. If single, you can focus solely on a serious connection. If in a relationship, you can work on eliminating issues to become more affectionate.

Mercury will retrograde (appears to move backwards) in your love sector mid-June to mid-July, and this can bring out some challenges in your love relationships. You may struggle with loved ones, have to deal with dramatic people, and feel like you don't have enough love in your life. You may want more attention, but may need to be introspective. It can be a good time to reconnect with old loves, especially with a Solar Eclipse in this sector June 21st during the retrograde.

Pisces 2020 Career and Money Horoscope

Mars starts 2020 moving into your career sector until mid-February, so you can start 2020 focused on trying to get on the right track for the rest of the year. You can set new goals and work hard to achieve them, and can be more disciplined and focused. You can work on your long-term plans, and can be more realistic about what you can achieve. You may hit your stride or hit a high point with something you began 12-18 months ago. You can experience success with something you've done right, or setbacks with something you haven't and redo.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your career sector June 5th, and you can make strides and achieve if you've done things the right way for the right reasons, or experience setbacks or failure if you haven't and reconsider your direction. A Solar Eclipse occurs in this sector December 14th, and you may close out the year focused on new goals, new ambitions, driven to pursue a new direction, and excited by your path.

Mars will spend July to the end of the year in your money sector, and is in this sector for an unusually long period because Mars will retrograde in your money sector September through mid-November. This can bring out financial issues, and you may have an unexpected expense, or just aren't very good at keeping track of where it's going. But you need to pay super close attention so you don't end up in a bad place financially! Don't be impatient, impulsive, rash, or erratic with your finances. Do your homework and make smart choices. It can be a good time to make money in a way you have before or wanted to before.

Pisces 2020 Home and Family Horoscope

Venus will retrograde in your home and family sector mid-May through June, and there can be some issues to work on at home or with family. You may have less patience to deal with family or the people you view as family, and need to work on controlling yourself emotionally. You may feel stuck in some way in one of your family relationships or dealing with matters at home, and need to slow things down and take a full look at everything. Little things can come up with home, so watch for things like pipes bursting and outlets shorting. You may not have as much time to spend at home or with family, and this can be frustrating to you, so try to make as much time as you can. Also be open to getting emotional support as this can help you deal with anything that comes your way.

A Lunar Eclipse occurs in your home and family sector November 30th, and you can settle issues with family, finalize plans for a move or a real estate transaction, part ways with a family member, finish redecorating or renovating, and you can be more expressive with what you're feeling.

Pisces 2020 Mental State Horoscope

Uranus remains in one of the sectors ruling your mind all year, and this is the first full calendar year Uranus is in this sector. This can get you interested in all sorts of new subjects and ideas, the unconventional and taboo, and you can find new ways of learning and sharing your knowledge as well. You may have flashes of insight and brilliance, but you can lose it just as fast. You can think way outside of the box, and see things in new ways.

Mercury retrogrades in the other sector ruling your mind the second half of October, and you may need more space mentally. You may want more room to let your mind wander, and you can be more defensive if you feel others are trying to force their ideas on you. This can be a good time to work on learning or teaching something again, or to explore somewhere you have before.

Mercury retrogrades in the sector ruling your subconscious mind for about a week in early March, and you may want to use that time to rest, recover, and replenish. Mars is in this sector April through mid-May, and you may have extra energy and drive to dive into your subconscious and understand yourself better. You can work on old issues and try to let go and move on from heavy baggage. This can get you ready for when Mars moves into your own sign. Saturn starts to enter this sector April through June, and officially enters mid-December along with Jupiter. This can help you end 2020 turning inward, reflecting, and pondering the past. You can work to do some deep letting go, and gain major understanding of your life.

Pisces 2020 General Horoscope

Neptune, your ruler, remains in your sign all year, so there can be some ease for you in being true to yourself and comfortable with your natural abilities. You can be extra charismatic and compassionate, empathic and intuitive, imaginative and artistic. Those of you born March 5th - 12th can feel the impact most in 2020.

Pluto, Saturn, and Jupiter come together in Capricorn in 2020 (and Mars mid-february through March), and this can bring major energy for you for your dreams for your future. You may become much more focused on the future you want to have, the changes you need to make in order to make it happen, and how you can be true to yourself through it all. You can push outside of your comfort zone and think outside of the box. You may feel more hopeful about what you can achieve, and make transformations that get you on the right path. Embrace the future!
