Extra: Massive Shifting Energy

March is probably the biggest single month of 2023! It comes with Saturn entering Pisces on the 7th, Pluto entering Aquarius on the 23rd, Ceres retrograding back into Virgo on the 22nd, Mars finally leaving Gemini on the 25th, and the first new moon in Aries on the 21st that leads into the Aries solar eclipse in April.

HUGE shifts! Massive changes! For some, this will happen right away in March or April, particularly if you have anything at 0, 1, 2, or 29 degrees (getting hit by all of this).

We're in a big shift. We can see this in the world at large, but it can also play out in our own lives. Pay special attention to the areas of life ruled by the houses where 0 degrees Pisces (Saturn), 0 degrees Aquarius (Pluto), 0 degrees Libra/29 degrees Virgo (Ceres retrograde), 0 degrees Aries (new moon), and 0 degrees Cancer (Mars) is placed. Yes, there are many placements, hence the big shifts and monster potential!

Focus on what big new beginning you want to embark on. This is a whole new chapter, a fresh start, completely starting over. Take the knowledge you've already gained, and use that to start something exciting now.

What big new beginning can you embark on right now? Have you already done homework with it and are ready? What else do you need to learn? How does it tie into the different parts of your natal chart being activated? Brainstorm:
